Boundary-Line Release Note

May 2024 v.2

This release note provides information about the May 2024 v.2 release of Boundary-Line.

Customer Information

- An error found in the May 2024 v.1 release of the Boundary-Line product. The error meant that expected changes on the ward layer for Worcester City are not present in this release. This has now been corrected and the Boundary-Line product v.2 has been republished with the updated corrections.
- Due to the recent coastline improvements that have been made, there are additional polygon vertices present in this release. If this causes any issues for you when loading the data, please let us know.
- Because of internal updates to a system, the Unit ID have all been changed. These may be restored or amended again at a later date.

Product enhancements

1. In line with the exit of the United Kingdom from the European Union, the European Region layer has been frozen as of 1 April 2021 (no edits have been made to the European Region extents since 31 December 2020, but there were some minor coastline edits up to 1 April 2021). This frozen layer is available as a supplementary Historical European Region layer within Boundary-Line.
2. For the purposes of Boundary Review, the extents of the European Regions in England have been retained in the Boundary-Line product and will be maintained as an English Region layer.
3. For customers who used the European Region layer to represent a national extent for Scotland and Wales, a new Country Region layer is available as a supplementary layer in Boundary-Line. This will be a maintained layer and represents the national extents of England, Scotland and Wales.
4. Boundary-Line is now released in vector tile (MBTiles) format as of October 2021.
5. Boundary-Line has updated the legal name of the National Assembly for Wales to Senedd Cymru/the Welsh Parliament.
  - a. The relevant legislation and Statutory Instruments (SIs) can be found here:
    - <https://www.legislation.gov.uk/anaw/2020/1/section/1>
    - <https://www.legislation.gov.uk/ukpga/2006/32/section/2> (Amended Wales Act(2006) with changed constituency name references)

Data issues

- The Global_Polygon_ID attribute is not present in the vector tile format of Boundary-Line at this release. All other formats are unaffected by this issue. This will be rectified for the subsequent release of Boundary-Line.

Changes not incorporated into the May 2024 Boundary-Line update

Residual Statutory Instruments (SIs) and non-SIs

Boundary-Line only represents the boundaries that are currently operational; future dated or unsigned SIs will not be included. This ensures that the boundary information currency is correct at the time of the dataset release.

SIs that are operational in May and or October but signed off too late for inclusion in the May or October products would be included in the next suitable release.

Boroughs

Previously, the reference to boroughs has not been included in the Boundary-Line product. In striving to improve the product and at the request of the end users, the inclusion of a reference to the boroughs will enable users to search within their GIS and locate them more easily. This addition was introduced in October 2006.

These additions only apply to England and affect the districts that have been granted Charters of Incorporation (Col), unitary authorities that have been created from previous districts with Col, and metropolitan districts that have borough status. The tables below identify where _ (B) has been added to the file name and (B) to the boundary data. This addition does not affect the structure or specification of the product and will not impact on your GIS or translation software.
